Online payments Terms & Conditions

These terms and conditions are subject to change at any time, and any changes will be effective immediately. Please ensure you are aware of the current policy.

It is important that you read these terms and conditions carefully before using the online service. Use of our payment system serves as an indication that you accept these terms and conditions. If you don't accept our terms and conditions, please refrain from participating.

Conditions

You warrant that in using the online payment service, you are authorized to use the debit or credit card or the PayPal account for the payment or payments you are making.

LIGS University will not be responsible if a payment is either refused or declined by the card issuer for any reason. If the card issuer declines payment, the university is under no obligation to bring this fact to the cardholder's or student/customers attention.

Payment by card using the online service does not on its own indicate the existence of a contract or constitute an agreement between the cardholder and the University or the student/customer and the University for the provision of the services. A contract will only come into being when separate conditions for the provision of a service have been fulfilled.

In no event will the university, its suppliers, or any other third parties mentioned on this site be liable (to the extent permitted by law) for any loss or damage (including without limitation, those resulting from lost profits, lost data or business interruption), arising from or in connection with your use, inability to use, or the results of use of this site, any websites linked to this site, or the materials or information contained at any or all such sites.

Refund policy

The $100 registration fee is non-refundable.

Refund of tuition payment/s is provided in accordance with the Enrollment Agreement between LIGS University and the student.
